Giving a Hands-On Approach through Trustmark's Associate Involvement Campaign "A Gift of Time"

At Trustmark, giving back to the community has been a corporate philosophy for 125 years. We understand the importance of being a true community partner. We know that by supporting the organizations and people where we live, we are also supporting the future and enhancing the lives of customers, associates and neighbors.

In 2008, Trustmark implemented an annual associate-driven campaign called "A Gift of Time," which has grown every year since inception. During 2013, 470 Trustmark associates participated in the campaign contributing more than 2,300 volunteer hours. These efforts benefitted various non-profit organizations located throughout Trustmark's markets in Florida, Mississippi, Tennessee and Texas.

"Trustmark's 'A Gift of Time' initiative has been an integral component of our company's testament to support the communities where we work and live," stated CEO Jerry Host. "Associates at all levels in the organization get involved to help strengthen our communities, because they understand the importance of doing so."

During the three-week campaign, Trustmark volunteers participated in a variety of community service activities, such as helping plant vegetable gardens, landscaping an early childcare center, as well as painting a career center and an elementary school. In addition, the volunteers assembled camp packets for Girl Scouts, organized a community clothes closet, assisted in relocating a food pantry, delivered meals on wheels and prepared meals at a local soup kitchen.
